

Attilis E. Young

July 8, 1978 - March 10, 2016

Attilis Elijah Young was the 4th of 6 children born to Thomas David Johnson & LouVerine A. Young on July 8th, 1978 at the Indian Hospital in Lawton, OK. As a child, he was baptized at Bethel-Temple Church of God in Christ under the direction of his late grandfather “Bishop Young”.

Attilis developed a strong relationship with God. He preached (spoke) about “the Lord” daily. The spirit and love he had for God was phenomenal.

He was a “care-free” person that was known by many people. He was everybody’s friend, and to some, a father figure toward any child whom came into his life.

Attilis had a zest for living life to the fullest. He would light-up the room with his smile and laughter. He was the “life of the party”. Attilis lived every day to the fullest.

Strong family ties fueled Attilis. He loved all his children unconditionally, and was proud to be called, “Dad”.

Artillis was a graduate of Lawton McArthur high school. He was currently persuing a degree in Criminal Justice from Cameron University.

Love ones left behind to cherish Attilis’s memories are: Wife, Tanya Waggoner Young; Special Companion of 23 years, Tanesha Deveaux-Adams; 7 children Aaron Deveaux-Adams, Attilis Elijah Young II, Azijah Deveaux-Adams, ShaVondrea Waggoner, Nick Burris, Jr., T’yanna Scott, and Exvier Deveaux-Desire.

Both parents, Thomas David Johnson II and LouVerine A. Young;

5 sisters: Cameisha Young, Demetria Johnson Dunmore, Crystal Johnson, Samantha Johnson, and Jennifer Johnson;

4 brothers: James L. Young (Jackie), David Johnson II, Ronald Farris (Shavonne), and Joshua Johnson;

“ My favorite lil friend in high school. My senior year at MAC we had social science together and Tillis was an underclassman. He kept me laughing in that class. Every time you seen him he was dressed ..clean..creased up..smelling good. Every one that I knew at MAC loved him. I'm going to miss that big bright beautiful smile. God bless and keep you Tillis!!!!

“ I remember the first time I met you. You came to Tanisha's house. At first I thought Azijah looked like her mom, until I seen and realized she was your spitting image. You saw me and instantly remembered who I was, and I didn't even know you. You told me how you remembered me as a baby and how great of a woman my mother was to people. You always welcomed me to talk to you if I was having difficulty about anything. You loved God, you always showed it. You loved your kids, I could tell. You were a family man, you always spoke of them. I really admired your love for Tanisha, because no matter what is always seemed so pure and real. Now your resting, and your legacy will carry on. Your a fearless man that will never be forgotten. Rest in Heaven Attilis. You're an angel now, no more suffering. You're now living a life that we all dream of, worry and care free. To the family, I will continue praying for your strength. Tanisha, Azijah, and Aaron God Bless you'll. Nothing but love! #MyRanchOaksFamily
