

Baron LeMar McCoy

September 7, 1983 - April 8, 2018

Baron Lamar McCoy was born on September 7, 1983 in Oklahoma City, OK to Verma (Yamo) McCoy, Jr. and Chiquita (Flowers) Robinson. Both parents had other children before and after the birth of Baron. He brought much joy to his parents and everyone that he encountered. Baron was special to so many of his family members and friends. He was not just a cousin, but a brother or an uncle; he was not just a nephew, but a son; he was not just a friend, but a brother. He never missed an opportunity to let those that he loved know (with a joke, pet names, much laughter when he was around, and the salutation when leaving) "I love you", followed by a hug and a kiss.

Baron attended Oklahoma City Public Schools from Star Elementary, Rogers Middle School to Star Spencer High School. Being a product of his Community schools, Baron made many, many, friendships that have lasted into his adulthood.

Baron had multiple talents, some were natural, some learned, and some acquired. Baron followed his dreams that he shared with his big cousin, Preston. From an early childhood, he wanted to become a Songwriter, talented Singer, Dancer, and Performer in the Arts of Entertainment. He wrote many songs for himself and others. Baron's words will live on in the music that he shared. Baron worked in many Industries. But recently, he learned a new craft, working in the Auto Body field. After learning the skill, he hit the ground running with it. He was doing this entrepreneurial business until his untimely death.

Baron was raised in and by a family of Praying People. He was covered under the "Blood of Jesus Christ" by his grandmother Bunch, and others. He understood the importance of having a personal relationship with Christ. He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized at an early age. Baron was preceded in death by his paternal sister, Shannon C. Lee; brother, William H. Lee; paternal grandparents, Verma D. McCoy, Sr. & Estoria McCoy; paternal aunt, Amy Mathis; paternal uncle, Baron; Maternal great grandmother Magdalene Flowers-Brown (Bunch); step-grandfather, James Davis; great uncle Theodore Flowers, Jr.; great aunt Debrah Ann Flowers; great-aunt Margaret Flowers; and 2 special cousins, Tammie Davis and Christopher Osborne. I know that they all were waiting at Heaven's Gate on April 8th to welcome him to his new home. Baron leaves to cherish his loving memories: his mother and best friend, Chiquita Robinson; father, Verma McCoy, Jr.; daughters, T'ajjah McCoy and Prynness McCoy (Mitchell); grandmother, Beverly Davis; great-grandfather, Theodore Flowers, Sr.; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, and many, many, cousins that he had special bonds with (akin siblings); many more people, to numerous to mention, whom were like family to Baron. Baron had the infectious gift of love, and he will be truly missed. The enemy thought he stole him from us, but that devil lied!! He will forever live on and in our memories, and the loved that we shared. Salute.....
