

Cynthia Anita Garcia

August 15, 1947 - February 11, 2016

Cynthia Anita, fondly called “Ochen,” was born August 15, 1947, in Wewoka, Oklahoma to Wister Jack” Pittman and Olevia Stevenson Pittman (both deceased).

At an early age, she accepted Christ and was baptized at Rock Hill Baptist Church in Wewoka, Oklahoma. Cynthia attended Douglas Grad School, Coward Jr. High and Wewoka High School in Wewoka, Oklahoma. She later relocated to Cincinnati, Ohio where she graduated from Wyoming High School in 1965.

Upon returning to her home town of Wewoka, Oklahoma, Cynthia married Billy Joe “Nation Red” Wallace, Sr., (deceased) of Sasakwa, Oklahoma. Two children were born to this union – Rodney (deceased) and Billy Joe, Jr. Cynthia later united in holy matrimony with Alvin “Buddy” Garcia – Chandler, Oklahoma. To this union was born a baby girl Lakisha Rachael Garcia.

Always a hard worker, Cynthia believed in providing for her family. She worked for various local assembly plants including Altec Lansing, Dayton Tire and General Motors where she was employed for 28 years. Cynthia worked in Management at General Motors OKC Assembly Division until her retired in 2005.

Cynthia united with the Evangelistic Baptist Church of Christ where she dutifully served as an Usher and attended Women #3's Sunday School Class until her health began to fail. She loved attending Sunday School and bringing "her girls" to children's church.

Her memories will be cherished by her Son, Billy Je Wallace, Jr. (Michelle), Oklahoma City; Daughter, Kakisha Rachael Garcia of Oklahoma City; Brother – Chester Pittman (Donna), Kansas City, Kansas; Sister - Jackye Russell, Miami Beach, Florida. Grandchildren – Yazmin, Yatawnna,
