

Devonta D'Jon Haliburton

July 8, 1992 - October 6, 2020

Devonta D'Jon Haliburton was born on July 8, 1992 in Lawton, OK to Tamesha Haliburton and Lawrence Johnson. Devonta was 28 years, 2 months, and 28 days old when the Lord called him Home on October 6, 2020. He was born in Lawton and attended Lawton Public schools. Later in life, he relocated to Amarillo, TX where he pursued a career at Tyson's Foods. Devonta (Fat-Fat) was a very loving, caring, person. His heart was full of love for his children and family. Fat-Fat was a family man.

Fat-Fat could not cook. His Pops said, "Fat-Fat can't cook a lick, but he can cook an egg in the microwave. And boy, was it good"!!! Fat-Fat loved to eat his favorite food, crab legs. He also loved to try to dance. Even though he had no rhythm, he thought he was "getting-down". Fat-Fat's smiles and sense of humor would brighten your day. He was such a Comedian.

Do not let him get caught-up in a controversial statement. Whenever it occurred, his favorite statement was, "Fat Tells No Tales".

Left to cherish the memories of Devonta: his better-half, Victoria Romo of Amarillo, TX; Children: Devonta Jr., Devontre' Haliburton (Nichelle Bookman) of Lawton, OK; Soraya Saleh (Deja Saleh) of Georgia; Maddix Romo of Oklahoma City, OK; MaKenzee Romo of Oklahoma City, OK; Myha Haliburton of Oklahoma City, OK; Ma'Leya Haliburton of Amarillo, TX; and God's gift yet to be born, "Victoria Romo".

Other survivors include father, Lawrence "Pa-Pa" (Carolyn) Johnson of Amarillo, TX; Maternal Grandmother, Gwendolyn "Pooke" Haliburton of Lawton, OK; Paternal grandmother, Eva Witherspoon of Amarillo, TX.

Sisters: LaKasha Haliburton, Lamiracle Harris, and Olivia Harris, all of Lawton, OK; LaKysia Johnson of Altus, OK; Kamitra Perry of Amarillo, TX.

Brothers: Quin Johnson of Amarillo TX; Davonte Burks of Amarillo, TX;

Quaylin Johnson of Altus, OK; Vincent Perry of Amarillo, TX; Randy Perry of Amarillo, TX.

A host of uncle, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
