

Freddie Norris Ogles

May 24, 1939 - June 30, 2022

Freddie Norris Ogles was born May 24, 1939 to Walter W. Ogles, Sr. and Annie Gower-Ogles in Arcadia, Oklahoma. He was the youngest of three children.

Freddie spent his formative years in Arcadia; being educated at home by his mother, as well as matriculating through the local school system, ultimately graduating from Arcadia / Dunbar High School.

Freddie entered adulthood and enlisted in the Army where he served his country with dignity for 6 years.

As his life progressed, Freddie married Savannah Morris, a childhood friend, and to that union 3 children were born: Darryl, Dianse, and Norris Ogles.

Freddie Ogles Jr. joined his Father's legacy in 1957

As a Veteran of the United States Army, Freddie knew there was so much more to this country and world he lived in, so he followed his passion of Aviation to California. There he was employed as an Aircraft Mechanic and served in many different capacities, as well as managerial roles. While in California, he met and married Willi Jamerson, to their union one son was born, Bronson Ogles.

Years later, as his passion for Aviation continued to flourish; Freddie excelled in a manner that allowed him to travel and ultimately relocate to Florida on a long-term assignment, where he met and married Sandie Davis. To their union three children were born: Reggie, Tijera, and Rondal Ogles.

Employment Opportunities were countless for Freddie, and he was blessed to be employed by three major aerospace companies which included, Boeing, Hughes Aircraft, and finally his crowning moment when he retired from Lockheed Martin.

Once Retirement called, he answered by celebrating with his favorite hobby, playing Golf. If he was not on the golf course, he was cooking, performing skilled home renovations, and spending time being “Grandpaw”, “Granddaddy”, and “PawPaw”.

Freddie loved his family with all of his heart. Close relatives whom preceded him in death were his Parents, Walter and Annie, his Sister Vaultress Christian, Brother Walter K Ogles, II, Daughter Dianse and his only Nephew, Walter K Ogles, III

Freddie leaves to honor his life and memory: Darryl (Debra), Freddie (Tonya), Norris (Cathy), Bronson (Stephanie), Reggie, Tijera, and Rondal (Courtney). 14 grandchildren, 11 Great-Grandchildren, two nieces, Ann Ogles-Lazaro and Donna Ogles-Fitzgerald and a host of other grand nieces, grand nephews, and friends.

Previous Events

Service

JUL 8. 11:00 AM (CT)

St. John's A.M.E. Church
700 N. Main Street
Arcadia, Ok., OK 73007

Tribute Wall

“ Kathy lit a candle in memory of Freddie Norris Ogles

Kathy - July 07, 2022 at 02:53 AM