“ One of the Best memory that have of James is when Timothy James Davis was born and he was holding him in his arms. He was so proud and excited to be a Dad. James was a kind hearted person and he loved his family and friends and always wanted to protect everyone. My condolences to his family and his children may they always carry in their hearts is Big smiling face that he shared with all he came in contact with. We Love you and will miss your weekly calls you have with Timothy he treasured those calls. The Kemper and Tims family.
