

Jeffrey E Cheadle

November 8, 1961 - November 21, 2024

Jeffrey E. Cheadle Sr.

Jeffrey E. Cheadle Sr., lovingly known as "Bodine" to family and friends was born on November 8, 1961, in Ada, Oklahoma, to Freddie Clark and Nancy Cheadle, passed away on November 21, 2024, in Madill, Oklahoma.

Jeff attended Oklahoma City Public Schools and dedicated much of his life to the restaurant industry as a talented chef. He showcased his culinary skills at Western Sizzlin in Madill, and The Country Kitchen in both Madill and Kingston, Oklahoma.

Jeff had three passions outside of his family: cooking, playing dominoes, and listening to music in his beloved truck, "Ghost." Known for its unmistakable sound, you could hear Jeff coming a mile away—exactly the way he liked it.

When he wasn't enjoying those hobbies, Jeff could be found cheering for the Dallas Cowboys or the Oklahoma Sooners with unwavering enthusiasm.

Preceding him in death are his parents, Freddie Clark and Nancy Cheadle.

Jeff leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. Surviving him are his devoted wife, Enola, of the home; his daughters: Cori Cole, Tasha Sellers, and Kemily (Erik) Williams; and his sons: Jeffrey Cheadle Jr., Jerome (Tiffany) Cheadle, Veantry (April) Williams, Bryan (Cindy) Butler, and Philip (Lissette) Butler. He is also survived by his sister, Evelyn (Jerry) Fuller, and brother, Daryl "Tony" Cheadle.

Jeff's pride and joy were his 24 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He also leaves behind a beloved niece, Nakia "Chockye" Roberts, and nephew,

Harold "Man" Roberts. Special mentions go to his cousin, Reggie Odum, and dear friends Mariah and Bobby, who brought so much joy to his life.

Jeff's extended family includes countless cousins, aunts, uncles, and dear friends who will miss him deeply.

Jeff will be remembered for his infectious laugh, his devotion to family, and his larger-than-life personality that could brighten even the darkest days

. A Father's Love

You taught us strength in every stride,

With love and laughter by our side.

A guiding hand, a steady voice,

In every moment, you're our choice.

Through domino games and music's beat,

In every dish, your heart we'd meet.

A chef, a fan, a man so true,

Dear Dad, there's no one quite like you.

Your truck, your joy, that booming sound,

A presence felt when you're around.

Though now you're gone, your light remains,

In hearts you touched, in love's sweet gains.

You gave us courage, showed us grace,

In every challenge, your steady face.

We'll carry you in all we do,

Our greatest blessing, forever you.

"The righteous man walks in his integrity; his children are blessed after him." –

Proverbs 20:7
