“ Johnny Banks was a Lawton legend. No one could tell a story like Johnny...especially with himself as the main character. And what a character he was! Johnny had been there, done that and survived to tell the story! He was one-of-a-kind. He always had a smile for those he cared about. He lived a long, full life and his bucket list was short. If he was your friend...it meant something to both of you. Johnny Banks was my friend and I will miss him. Rest in peace man and know you will not be forgotten.
