

Lillie Mae Milligan

March 3, 1932 - July 24, 2022

Lillie Mae Milligan was born in Chillicothe on March 3, 1932 to Sezar (Secil) Milligan and Eliza Bryant Milligan. After a long, full life Lillie received her heavenly wings and took flight on Sunday, July 24, 2022. She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Earnest Horton Jr., daughter, Betty June Longmiles; sisters: Dorothy Mae Miller, Agnes Harvey and Mary Nell Milligan; brothers Henry Milligan and Carl Lee Milligan.

Lillie married her husband, Earnest, July 31, 1961 and together they worked hard to provide for their family. She was a godly woman, indeed, who always had an uplifting word to share. She was a faithful church member of Finding Your Way Back COGIC. The energy Lillie radiated was pure love and always opened her home to anyone with loving arms, a warm meal and hot cup of coffee. Her stories were filled with wisdom, hidden gems and a word of truth that you could carry for a lifetime. Her prayers were like guardian angels that covered us while we were out in the world and her hugs let you know that everything was going to be alright. She was a humble, meek woman who loved her family and every visit was memorable. In all the ways she showered us with loving acts both great and small, we are forever encouraged to run on and see what the end will be.

The beloved matriarch of our legacy was an earth angel that guided us with wisdom, faith and love for the most High. Her love for her family, friends and all others will be cherished for time unending. Lillie leaves to honor her memories her ten children: Lula (Henry) Alexander of Duncan, OK; Carl Lee (Mozell) Kendricks of Hobart, OK; Ernest Horton III (the late Willie Mae) Horton of Fort Worth, TX; Mammie Horton (James Givens) of Fort Worth, TX; Doris (James) Camp of Dallas, TX; John (Era) Horton of Crowley, TX; Ora Horton (Samuel Okolo) of Dallas, TX; Sammy Horton (Yolanda Gardner) of Houston, TX; Carl (Seannee) Horton of Pflugerville, TX and James Horton of Live Oak, TX; 32 grandchildren, 51 great-grandchildren and 15 great-great-grandchildren. Also, she is survived by three sisters: Ernestine Taylor and Ora Mae Milligan of Austin, TX; Dorothy Jean Milligan of Los Angeles, CA; two brothers R.L Milligan of Elgin, TX and Ray Charles Milligan of Austin, TX and a host of nephews, nieces and loved ones.
