

Lovie Bradley, Jr.

May 30, 1942 - June 16, 2024

Lovie Bradley, Jr. was the first of 5 children born to Lovie Sr. & Cora Lewis-Bradley on May 30, 1942, in Frederick, OK.

Shortly after the birth of Lovie, Jr. the family moved to Chickasha, OK, and made Chickasha their Home.

He was baptized as a small child at Mount Olive Church. While at Mount Olive, Lovie became an Ordained Deacon. Later in life, Lovie joined Church with his wife, Lavern, at Church of the Living God P.G.of T. He served as a Deacon there until his health began to fail.

Lovie received his early education at Lincoln school. He voted most likely to succeed from his Class at Chickasha High school.

He received training in maintenance and made that training his life-long vocation. Lovie worked at many places including: American Optical, Pet Milk Inc., Unit Oparts, and his last place of employment before retiring was at Delta Faucet.

Lovie Bradley, Jr. united in marriage to Lavern Graham on December 1992. She loved and cherished him all the way through, until the end.

Lovie was preceded in death by both parents, Lovie, Sr. & Cora Bradley; one Son, Victor; Sister, Doris; one brother, Clyde; trainees, Maxine & Doris.

Lovie is survived by his wife of the Home, Lavern; daughters: Sabrena Bradley of Oklahoma City, OK and Bregett (John) Conway of Chickasha, OK; brother, Johnny (Tina) Bradley of Chickasha, OK.

He is also survived by a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and friends.
