“ Luiz aka Merch aka You Need Not Know.....my time with you was tragically cut short in the worst way possible. I never got to tell you how much love I have for you or tell you all the things I learned from you. I wanted to tell you thank you for believing in me so much and allowing me to change lyrics, push you out of your comfort zone, test your skills & challenge you to be at the top of your game. We've spent a lot of time together but not enough. I encourage the guys to be strong cause I know it's what you would've wanted but man I miss you like crazy!!! I know you're gone in physical but spiritually you're here guiding me on how to make sure your legacy lives on!!!!
