

Mack Donald Alexander

March 25, 1962 - May 5, 2023

Mack Donald Alexander was born to John and Laura (Mc Donald) Alexander on March 25, 1962. Mack was the ninth of nine children.

Mack joined and was baptized at Shepherd Street Christian Church at the age of 6 years old. He attended Sunday School classes, Sunday service and weekly Christian Youth Fellowship. Mack really enjoyed the summertime activities, especially the Saturday evening weiner roasts.

Mack attended school in the Chickasha school system from Head Start through high school. Although Mack played baseball and basketball, it was in football that “Big Mack “excelled. He played football from the Mighty Mite through Middle and High School. In 1980 Mack was selected as a 1980 All-Starter in football and was selected to participate in the 1980 Oil Bowl. The Oil Bowl was held each year between the Oklahoma and Texas All Starters.

All graduating from Chickasha High School, Mack attended Cameron University. In 1988, Mack worked for the Omaha, Nebraska Boys & Girls Club as a youth specialist. Later, he worked for J & E Tree Service and of course, John’s BBQ Place, the family business.

Mack had many interests, music being one. He enjoyed taking his nephews to concerts and turning everyone on to the newest performer. Mack loved family and friends, calling everyone sometimes to just say “Hello.”

Mack was preceded in death by his parents, Laura and John and brother, John. He is survived by his sisters, Paula Atkinson, Karron Brown and Sharron McMurry, his brothers Rev. Dr. R.P. Ashanti – Alexander (Rosalind), Horace (Renice), Bruce and Duncan (Darrie). He is also survived by extended family, Bernice Broadway- Alexander and her children Janet Cooper, Sanita Broadway, Isiah Broadway and Wayne Broadway and his brother John's wife, Neressa Lynn Alexander and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and countless friends.

“ Mackie, my baby brother. Oh the times we had!! My children love their Uncle Mackie so much. The holidays we shared. That Thanksgiving you spent with us, and together went to see at that time, your youngest niece Layla, who had just been born. The time that you were baptized in Norman, Oklahoma and gave your life to Christ as Your LORD and Savior. There are too many memories to share, but for now I'll keep them in my heart. I Love You Mackie, tell everyone “Up Yonder” that I love them too ❤️ Rest In Heaven, My Blessed Brother ✨
