“ Shellie was such an amazing person. She was one of those individuals who just stood out among others. Whenever we would get together you could always count on being greeted with her beautiful warm smile and hug. I am so grateful to have had the opportunity to call her my friend. She was intelligent and very accomplished in her work but yet humble in every-since of the word.

I am most grateful to have enjoyed such wonderful writings in her monthly blog www.blackleadinglady.com. Shellie was a talented and amazing writer. She will be missed by many but I know her soul rests in arms of our heavenly father where she will forever be at rest...no more pain or sorrow. I say to her family and friends, may cherished memories bring you moments of great comfort.

Love,
Kathy Lee and family

“ Please allow me to offer my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Death touches us all and the pain is hard to bear. Jesus promised a resurrection and the hope is real. John 5:28,29. We can look forward to a time when death and sickness will be a thing of the past. Rev. 21:3,4 and Isaiah 33:24. Having said that, you will see "Shellie" again. May Jehovah God grant your family with peace and the ability to endure this most grievance time. Again, I'm so very sorry for your loss.

“ Shellie will forever be in my heart and on my mind. Shellie was incredibly smart, thorough, and dependable in all that she did at work. It was an honor to know her and work with her. She was such a special lady, doing the most for her family and Celanese (where she was employed for the last 7 years). I admire Shellie for all that she achieved and for all that she has done in life. She truly exemplified the most caring mother, friend and co-worker. I am so humbled that God blessed me by putting Shellie in my life. May God continue to bless all who loved her with His amazing grace. Rest in Peace, Shellie, you were loved in life and will be forever missed.

May God surround family and friends with His unending love and comfort.

Love Always,

Kim Andrews
