

Shirley Mae Johnson

February 9, 1947 - November 17, 2017

Shirley Mae Smith-Johnson was the 1st child born to Johnnie Smith & Juanita Johnson on February 9, 1947.

Shirley was reared in Binger, Oklahoma, and attended Binger Public Schools. While in Binger, Shirley was a member of St. Paul Baptist Church. She was gifted with helping others, especially gifted in helping children.

She raised her children in the Chickasha Area. Her grandchildren would always desire to spend their Summer school breaks with her in Chickasha.

Shirley spent her last two years in Anadarko, Oklahoma where she wanted to be close to her new grandson.

Shirley worked at Hermatic Switch. She was also a “stay at home mom” to her two children Tommy Lee and Rachelle Regina.

Shirley united in matrimony to Tommy Buchanan; to this union two children were born: Tommy Jr. and Rachelle.

Later in life, Shirley united in marriage to her present husband, James Charles Johnson of Chickasha.

Shirley was preceded in death by both parents; One Sister, Linda Madison-Brown; and One Brother, Leslie Beasley.

Those whom survived to cherish and honor Shirley's memories are: Two Children, Tommy Lee Buchanan, Jr. and Regina Rachelle Buchanan; Husband, James Charles Johnson; Brothers, Eugene Johnson, Ricky Beasley & Darrel Johnson; Granddaughters, Regina Buchanan, Lenesia & Lekitta Nelson; Grandsons: Marcel & Emmanuel Buchanan; Great-grandsons, Aiden Lee Buchanan.
